

MBBS in Vietnam is a Cost-Effective and Qualitative Option for an Indian Medical Aspirant!

Many Indian medical aspirants prefer to pursue their MBBS overseas. Each year many Indian aspirants apply to study the MBBS course abroad. In India it's a challenging task for an average student to get an opportunity in government medical colleges, and in private medical colleges the MBBS course fee is expensive. Thus, many students from India prefer to study MBBS abroad.

Strives to provide you with all the updates about MBBS in foreign countries. Our team members are trained and offer need-based support to take admission for the MBBS course in foreign countries. Analysing your academic qualification, budget, and need, we try to find a suitable medical university overseas.

MBBS in Vietnam: Key Information

Duration- The duration of MBBS course in Vietnam is 6 years; 5 years of academic career and 1 year internship program.

Break Down of the Course Duration:

- Pre-Clinical Phase – 1 to 2 Years
- Clinical Phase – 3 to 4 Years
- Internship / Practical Training – Final Year (1 Year)

Phase Duration Focus Area

Pre-Clinical 1-2 Years Basic Medical Sciences

Clinical 3-4 Years Hospital Training & Clinical Studies

Internship 1 Year Hands-on Practical Experience

Top Medical Universities in Vietnam and Their Locations:

- Hanoi Medical University – Hanoi
- University of Medicine and Pharmacy – Ho Chi Minh City
- Hue University of Medicine and Pharmacy – Hue
- Thai Nguyen University of Medicine and Pharmacy – Thai Nguyen
- Can Tho University of Medicine and Pharmacy – Can Tho
- Pham Ngoc Thach University of Medicine – Ho Chi Minh City
- Haiphong University of Medicine and Pharmacy – Haiphong
- VinUniversity – Hanoi

MBBS in Vietnam: Eligibility Criteria

- For studying MBBS course in Vietnam one must have to complete +2 from a recognized board. Subject must be Physics, Chemistry, and Biology.
- The minimum percentage required for general category is 50% in aggregate and for reserved category is 40% in aggregate.
- The age limitation for pursuing MBBS course in Vietnam is 17 years old.

- NEET qualification is mandatory for taking MBBS admission in Vietnam.
- In Vietnam medical education is provided in English or Vietnamese. Students choosing for
- English-medium programs may need to qualify in language proficiency programs like IELTS/ TOEFL.
- Candidates are required to submit a medical fitness certificate to take admission to a top medical university in Vietnam.

MBBS in Vietnam: Intake

- Main Intake: September / October
- Application Period: February – June
- Secondary Intake : January / February

Why Study MBBS in Vietnam?

Budget-Friendly Tuition Fee:

Vietnam medical universities offer education at an affordable tuition fee.

Globally Recognized Universities:

There are many NMC and WHO approved medical colleges and universities in Vietnam.

English Medium Instruction:

English language instruction in the medical universities in Vietnam makes it easier for international students to comprehend the classes and instructions.

Safe and Welcoming Environment:

Vietnam is a safe country and the environment is student-friendly.

In conclusion, studying MBBS in Vietnam is a wise decision on the part of an Indian medical aspirant. The tuition fees of the universities are lower than those of private Indian medical universities. Contact today to pursue an MBBS course in Vietnam.